

A native of Indonesia, Dr. Kartika Putri is Worship and Music Minister at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Wausau WI. She holds a BM in Organ and BA Church Music from Wartburg College, as well as a DM in Organ and Sacred Music from Indiana University.

In 2009, she spent the summer in Heidelberg, Germany as a guest student at the Hochschule für Kirchenmusik Heidelberg, where he studied organ, improvisation, and choral conducting. Dr. Putri has been a featured artist and presenter at chapter events and regional conventions for the American Guild of Organist and Association of Lutheran Church Musician. She has also been featured as soloist in concert with the Wausau Symphony Orchestra. As a recitalist, Dr. Putri has performed in the United States, Germany, France, and Indonesia. She also presents master classes, workshops, and lectures in the field of organ literature and sacred music.